MASKED MEN KILL SHEEP.

Stock Taken from a Herder Near Grand Junction, Col. (By Associated Press.)

GRAND JUNCTION, Col., Dec. 19 .-Another chapter was added to the sheep war in Plateau County Sunday. One hundred and twenty-five bucks belonghundred and twenty-five bucks belonging to J. A. Cunningham, of Salt Lake, which had been on the range in Plateau County during the Summer, were taken to Cisco, Utah, to join the large herd, and James Wallace, who had them in charge, camped on Saturday night on what is known as the Hog Back, about twenty miles east of this city.

About 1 o'clock Sunday morning he was aroused by ten masked men, who, at the point of revolvers, compelled him to give up his gun. Two men were left to guard him, and the rest drove the sheep a short distance from camp and killed about one hundred of them and left the rest with broken backs and legs.
